In the Name of GOD TRINITY

Words of GOD to mankind
through His personal Instrument,
the Sword-Bishop

We call upon

GOD TRINITY

as a WITNESS to testify that we have been called neither by man nor through man nor through ourselves, but simply and solely through the will of GOD under the special cooperation of MARY to extraordinary apostle and bishop as His elected and His personal INSTRUMENT, simply and solely assigned to JESUS CHRIST!

SWORD-BISHOP

We are the two-edged sword, coming out of GOD's mouth, of which Sacred Scripture (Rev. 1,16; 19,15) speaks. Our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the spirit, against the spirit of men and the spirit of darkness, which is Satan. Our judging emerges simply and solely from the Main Commandment. The Main Commandment is our only standard of value in judging and acting. Therefore our GOD-given sword is two-edged. Let no man say that he loves his neighbour if he does not first love GOD with all his heart, with all his soul, with all his mind, and with all his strength, as JESUS would have us do (Matth. 22,37-40; Mark 12,30). Let no man say that he loves GOD if he does not love his neighbour (all men), even if they were his adversaries and enemies. For it is written: „Love your enemies, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them that persecute and slander you“ (Matth. 5,44). It is according to this two-edged sword that we must act!

GOD's Word, a Sharp Two-Edged Sword

Notice and hear GOD's WORD, which like a two-edged sword comes out of His mouth and penetrates into the hearts of men.

Nineveh was led to repentance through a sole prophet. One single prophet was enough. But to you, today's mankind, hundreds of prophets were sent, and still you have not been converted. How many times even the Mother of the LORD herself came deeply worried, full of sorrow and affliction, warning you in a voice choked with tears. You did not listen to her. How many privileged souls GOD raised up in order to urge you to repentance and announce to you a terrible punishment if you continue to persist in your impenitence. But you threw it all to the wind, and scoffed at, mocked, despised and rejected those who were sent to you by GOD. Thus you sinned against the HOLY SPIRIT.

But it was the victim and atoning souls (privileged souls), so mocked and despised by you, people, that had caused GOD the LORD to calm His holy and just wrath, and to keep putting off the threatened chastisement. Their continued pleading and sacrificing for sinners and for their very pursuers and tormenters were able to hold back GOD's punishing arm. So far GOD showed Himself to be patient and full of compassion. But now His long-suffering is at an end.

This is what GOD the LORD says: „Completed be the time that I warned mankind. Woe, woe to you, human race! All the tears of My dearest Mother, all the tears and sufferings of My privileged children I will charge to your account. You will have to pay this bill. Relentlessly I will, in holy wrath, make sure you pay them off to the very last penny.“

Now the Wine Press Is Trodden

„You stiff-necked people, with uncircumcised hearts and ears! Just like your fathers, you also resist the

HOLY SPIRIT.

Was there ever a prophet your fathers did not persecute?“ (Acts 7,51f)

You did not want to acknowledge the value and calling of My privileged souls, so now I, the LORD of all, will teach them to you by shutting Myself off from My Instruments (privileged souls).

I will no longer pay attention to their prayers, their sacrifices and their pleas for mercy to put off My punishment. Now will I, full of holy wrath, inflict on you, stubborn people, My punishment. You are to find out what they, whom you persecuted and spurned, did for you.

Darkness come over you! Confusion, despair, chaos and manifold hardships!

Do not say that I, your GOD, have rejected you. You yourself, people, have rejected Me in My prophets and instruments! You yourself have loaded the coming terrors and pains on you.

So reap what you have sown!

My Church has become unfaithful to Me. This will now be revealed in the coming time of woe and horror. The fruits will show it to all the people. She, My unfaithful Church, has thrown pearls to the swine. So may the swine now turn around and attack her, as it is written in Sacred Scripture. My Church, you have become a whore and a prostitute!

You dallied, whored and committed adultery with the world! Shamelessly you undressed to lure in the dark. You threw your clothes away from you, and with your nakedness tried to draw your neighbours toward you in the dark.*

In doing so you broke My holy Covenant! Therefore I will take it away from you and will renew it in the HOLY SPIRIT with the now coming Church of Love.

The call from your heart was no longer: „In love and holy zeal all to the greater glory of GOD!“ but: „As you like it!“

You did so in order to please the children of this world, people who are given to the allurements of this world, and who, turned soft, travel the broad and comfortable road. But I taught you who the prince of this world is: Satan. The children of this world are, therefore, children of Satan. You, My Church, like Satan's children, have cherished and nourished vipers in your bosom.

But you pushed away, mocked, scoffed and jeered at My little children, who love Me humbly. You had them even dragged before worldly judges and sold them to the pagans. You acted against Sacred Scripture and the instruction of My Apostle Paul. So I tell you: verily, Scripture is beginning to fulfil itself anew: My children and instruments are cast out of your synagogues ...!

You are like the Pharisees and scribes at the time of My earthly life. They were well versed in the Scriptures. But when what was written began to be fulfilled they did not understand! You, however, even dare to interpret Sacred Scripture after your own taste and as you see fit! Your knowledge has already puffed you up so much that you will soon burst! Truly did My Apostle write: „Knowledge puffs up. Charity alone builds up”.

* Through conformity to the spirit of the world, through a terrifying desecralisation and irreverence towards GOD and all that was hitherto regarded as holy and venerable (questioning of the dogmas, watering down of the morals, etc.), the formerly so pure Bride of CHRIST, the Church, has divested herself of her dress and has become a shameless whore.

Know, therefore: you have become false prophets! You speak and act according to the tastes of men. You are seeking to flatter their ears. You proclaim a way of comfort and not the one of the cross. In the coming time you will know how much your doing provoked My anger.

And to you, bishops

I ask you: for what did I call you to the ministry, then, if you have been called and chosen at all? You were meant to be leaders and shepherds in My stead. But where is your imitation? Do you act as I, your LORD and Master, did? Have I not taught you in everything only to do the will of My FATHER and to seek the glory of My FATHER, and this even to the giving of your life if need be? But you are even afraid of an opposing word or the loss of the bishop’s see. Did your holy predecessors and models not rather go into exile for their courageous words? And you? Are you not ashamed, then, to celebrate the feasts of your holy predecessors who, for their clear and decisive words to the glory of GOD, went with holy composure, nay, with pleasure and readiness to their deaths? How should I be able to save My Church with you?

Let each of you ask himself what he has done in the Church to the greater glory of GOD. Has he, for example, even helped to abolish the appropriate expressions of whorship to GOD (removal of Communion rails, omission of genuflections, irreverent behaviour in the House of GOD)?

And then you, My people, who profess the so-called Traditional Church. If at first I looked on you with delight, you have now become My and My Mother's greatest pain. The reasons for this I have already let you know in the writings of My Sword-Bishop.

Know, little flock, I had chosen you for Myself. I let it happen that you would not fall prey to Satan's bedazzlement as it happened in My Official Church. Why, however, do you praise yourself above the others and take the credit for it yourself? Everything I do or allow is meant to bring something forth according to My holy plan and counsel. – You, however, I have chosen to do penance for the blind and for the sinners with most holy zeal, and to intercede for the evil-doers with a heart full of glowing love. But what did you do?

With harsh words you condemned, criticised them, and self-righteously looked down upon them. You have not done what I had ordained you for. Many of you practise their pious devotion in a sheer self-satisfied and selfish way, your disposition of heart and soul remains unchanged for years just as it was! Your priests are not concerned about your sanctification, about your growing in perfection. Like machines they administer the Sacraments to you without bothering any further about you. You have become a talkative people. With you, therefore, I shall have to deal harder than with those who became worldly and went astray. You are like people who have gone back to the Old Testament. You consider the fulfilling of the laws and rubrics as most important, as the essence. But what I, your GOD and LORD, am looking for is a warm heart glowing with love, a heart full of love towards Me and your neighbour, even towards your enemies. He who really loves Me with a warm and living heart fulfils the laws without being particularly aware of it. You, traditional priests, remained old wineskins. In these I cannot pour the new wine any longer.

The New Generation of Priests, the Priests of the Heart

I am about to appoint for Myself a new generation of priests: priests of the heart. I do not want mere intellectual priests any more. In this new generation of priests I will pour My new wine.

Then My Church will nowhere be found any more as she appeared before: in churches of stone, on written, printed and sealed paper, in organisations and external bustle and the like. My Church will then live on in the hearts of men. Wherever a heart is burning with true love towards Me, there will My Church be found. In this way I have transplanted My Church into the heart of My Sword-Bishop. In there, the HOLY SPIRIT will enkindle her to ever greater power and brighter splendour until the hour of renewal of the Covenant in the Church of Love, which will arise in the age of the HOLY SPIRIT, after the purification of My people, which is now beginning. Because the people must be purified before the Church of Love can come into being.

Behold, My words prove to be true in the Official Church, which no longer possesses the light. What is happening then in today's Official Church? What a dance around the Golden Calf just as the Israelites did! They dance on and rejoice, and they think that everything is just fine, whereas you cannot recognise any fruits at all, fruits that would redound to My greater glory.

So tell Me then, My people, why do you cheer, heap praises on, idealise and idolise the leaders of the Church on account of their great occasions and so on? Afterwards the churches are just as empty as before, aren't they? How is it, then, that you judge a person by his words and grand gestures? Have I not taught you not to pay heed to mere words but to the fruits. To the very fruits only! Know, therefore, My people, that My Sword-Bishop, in the same time, has brought forth more fruits in the souls, yet he is misunderstood and an outcast.

By the fruits you should judge!

Yet you go into raptures over pious words, which, however, the moment they are pronounced, are instantly carried away by the wind. Nothing has changed in the Church to My greater glory. On the contrary, the demolition in the Church continues with all intensity. You do not even notice.

My people, you are being deceived.

It is part of the coming darkness that I do not inform you of what is going on in the Vatican.

Satan's Large-Scale Cunning Feint

The Church is like a huge oven: the fire which burns in it springs simply and solely from the most holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the mysterious, unbloody renewal of the bloody event at Calvary. All holy Sacraments, indeed all devotions and works of piety have their value only through the fire which springs from the Holy Mass. But today's generation of priests is no longer able to add new fire to the oven. The hearts of the priests should be the flints. They should kindle a fire and fan the flames in the oven to a glow.

Their lukewarm, indifferent and cold hearts having become rigid with all the paragraphs and laws are no longer able to cope with this task. With the new order of the Mass there is no fire to be kindled any more anyway.

In this way the fire of the Official Church has turned into dying embers. Still, the people are being deceived. Still it is misled by useless paper fire, in part consciously, in part unconsciously staged, which for a moment flares up brightly but at once crumbles into ashes again that will be blown away by the wind.

Cheap showmanship, big talk, gesticulations and the like with no actions to follow, bringing forth no good fruit, are like useless paper which is held so long into the smouldering, nearly dying glow until it catches fire. If this completely useless paper fire flares up and is then with theatrical gestures held out to the people, they go into raptures and are swept away by enthusiasm, calling out: „We have fire again! We have fire again in the Church! Now everything will surely take a good turn!”

Poor, deluded people! While you are rejoicing and going wild with enthusiasm, the glowing fire (Holy Sacrifice of the Mass) is going out more and more until in the end it dies out completely. In the meantime they keep you, poor people, in suspense with ever new, ever bigger and more and more cunning stagings of useless paper fires.

But once the embers in the oven are completely out so that they may no longer kindle any paper fires, then, sobered up, full of shame and despair, you will realise that you have been misled. Behold, I warned you in good time.

Woe – woe – woe to you, generation of priests, in those days of the disillusionment of the people! This outraged and desperate people will demand your blood of priests, and it will flow through the streets and into your churches. Pray that the shedding of your blood will at least then not be in vain. For in those days I will let your blood wash off and away the disgrace and sins of the world. If only at the last moment of your death you will cherish these sentiments of contrition and expiation! Then at least you would still receive a merciful judgement. Later, however, a completely new generation of priests will arise, priests full of childlike zeal and with glowing hearts for their GOD and LORD.

Now the End of This Time Is Drawing Near!

You will be purified, My people, until the last penny has been paid. You will be sorely tried and afflicted, and the trials will become ever bigger and more severe. Extraordinary things will come to pass in the Church and the world causing you to cry out in uncertainty and despair. Then you will search for My previous lights (privileged souls), but I will take away from these the perfect light! I will cause My former privileged souls to make false statements. Thus you will finally be led to him whom I have elected for this time and the time yet to come. Many of My former privileged souls will fall away from Me, even though they once brought forth richest fruits, and will become instruments of Satan. They will lead many pious people astray, which has in part already happened (e. g. Palmar).

The tiny little flock, being small only for a short time, which is gathering around My elected Sword-Bishop, will for some time have to celebrate the holy Mysteries in the simplest conditions. I will not look upon the poverty in which they must live, but I will take My delight in their burning hearts.

My chosen children!

My chosen Instrument, My Sword-Bishop, will even now be forced to behave prudently and to work partly without being recognised. For safety's sake he will consequently be forced to go in worldly dress, because endeavours are being made to silence him. Do not begin to have your doubts about him. I gave him the skill to deceive his enemies whenever necessary. For him it is rather a time to fight against the secret machinations of Satan than to announce the praises of GOD in priestly robe. Like Michael he will often have to change his priestly apparel for the robe of his current task.

A few things, My people, may strike you as impossible or even as foolishness, but the time is near that you will see for yourself and learn from experience.

Engrave these words of Mine in your heart and take them as a guideline for your action, when in the coming events you will be forced to make a decision.

Thus saith the LORD, the Almighty!
